

MY MILITARY HERO

My Military Hero is my Dad. I love him very much. He is very lucky where he is he has no traffic jams and we have twice as much. With all the lights, all the honking and all the slow cars. Where my dad is he sees quiet camels go by rather than honking loud cars. He rides big tanks. I made a tank from a kit that is only 6 inches, maybe he can show me how he rode his tank using my little tank!

My dad worked in Boston before he went to Iraq. No longer he sees traffic lights. Where he is he can count the stars instead of wait for the traffic lights to change. You should meet my dad. He is loving and sweet. He is special to me because he went over to a poor place where not many people go to make the United States a better place to live!

While my dad was gone away, I met some friends, their dad's were away too.

For dinner he eats hamburgers. If he is lucky he might have a cookout. But he still eats hamburgers!

You should look at your own mom or dad or any one who is away and see how special they are! My dad is special to me because he cares for me. He protects me. And he is my Hero!
