

My Military Hero

My hero is my Dad - a.k.a. Papa. He is cool and funny. My Papa is also my Military Hero because he is the best Marine ever. All of the Marines in Afghanistan are lucky to have my Dad out there working with them. We are lucky he is on our side. He is smart, a good leader, brave, and he is someone to look up to. He always works hard and is happy doing what he does for us and our country. I think it is very good what he is doing. I hope I am like my Papa when I get older. I wish every Marine was as happy and nice as he is.
