

My Military Hero

By: Isabella Stober

My Dad is my hero. He does lots of good stuff for our country. My Dad is in the army. He is the best. Once Dad took me on a walk. He said, "Bella, you know those Dads and Moms that have to go away? Well I am one of them. So soon I will have to go to Afghanistan." I started to cry because I didn't want him to go. I would miss him so much but he has to do the right thing for our country and for every one.

I don't know what it will be like without him. I'm sure we will have fun, but it wouldn't be complete without Dad. I will miss him. Our whole family will miss him. I wonder what he will be doing? Maybe he is reading a book about Afghanistan. Or talking to Mom on the phone.

In the meanwhile, my new baby brother will be born. Me and my sisters will be busy helping Mom with the new baby. We will take pictures of him to send to Daddy.

When I am in third grade, that means that Daddy is coming home! When he finally gets home I will bug him and throw a surprise party for him. Then everything will be back to normal like usual.

My Dad is a great hero because even though he will miss our family he is keeping all the families in our country safe.
